Liu Jiatong
+44 7443 409061 | jiatong.liu.23@ucl.ac.uk | jiatong.liu@sciencespo.fr

EDUCATION

University College London 2023 – 2027
BSc Economics with a Year Abroad

- Relevant modules: Economic Policy Analysis (ECON0024), Political Economy (ESPS0015), Regression Modelling (STAT0006), Statistical Methods in Economics (ECON0005)
- Dissertation: How does China's Social Credit System affect politically connected firms' advantage in bank credit? Triple difference-in-differences design using pilot city rollout and CSMAR listed-firm data.

Sciences Po, Le Havre Campus 2025 – 2026
Year Abroad Exchange

- Coursework: Understanding Chinese Society, Economic Models in Asia, Investigating Human Rights in Asia, Globalisations Compared, Inquiries in Sociology, Culture and Society.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Policy Research Intern, The Asian Institute (Remote) January 2026 – Present
Research supervised by Director Emanuel Pastreich

- China Social Credit System: Co-authoring a working paper on China's 2025 Corporate Credit Repair framework, comparing how Zhejiang and Liaoning implement central rules and analysing the discretion left by under-specified substantive criteria.
- Reading and synthesising Mandarin primary sources, including State Council regulations, NDRC guidance and provincial implementation notices.

Research Assistant and Committee Member, UCL Explore Econ 2025 2024 – 2025
Research Assistant to Professor Ramin Nassehi

- Supported the review and selection of submitted conference papers.
- Coordinated communication between the committee and shortlisted authors and provided academic coordination on site.

RESEARCH PAPERS

Effectiveness of the Collateral Channel as a Monetary Policy Transmission Mechanism in Emerging Market Economies May 2025
Lead author. Presented at the UCL Explore Econ Conference 2025

- Led the project from research design to presentation. Built the cross-country macroeconomic panel in Stata, ran the regression analysis and derived the transmission mechanism, with case evidence from Hungary and Germany.

Why Did Shanxi Piaohao Remain Kinship-Based While German Universal Banks Became Corporate Institutions? A Comparative Study, 1842–1913 November 2025
Sciences Po, Globalisations Compared

- Comparative historical analysis of how state-finance relations shaped divergent institutional paths for financial intermediaries in Qing China and Imperial Germany.

Is Grid Governance a Rationalisation of State Authority? 2026
Sciences Po, Understanding Chinese Society

Generational Differences in Expectations of State Responsibility in China 2025
Sciences Po, Inquiries in Sociology

Wearing the Imagined Community: The Dior Mamianqun Controversy and Nationalist Sentiment in China 2026
Sciences Po, Culture and Society

Effect of Corruption on Patent Applications 2025

UK COVID-19 Policy Evaluation November 2023
UCL, group project

- Estimated the effect of UK pandemic control policies on new infections with lagged OLS against a constructed stringency index, with robustness checks. Led data management.

SKILLS AND LANGUAGES

- Software: Stata, Excel, Tableau, R